

CASA: Advocates for Children of New York State

AT A GLANCE

Giving

What Can I Do?

Casa Programs provide numerous opportunities for you to help children at risk:

- Volunteer—become a CASA volunteer and work directly with your county's Family Court to speak up for children in need.
- Make a contribution—your donation will help us maintain critical support for abused and neglected children. (CASANYS is a 501(c) (3) organization and contributions are tax deductible to the full extent allowed by law.)
- Share your skills—Use your fundraising or board committee work skills to assist at either the State Association or a local CASA program.
- Spread the Word—talk to friends and family about CASANYS.

ADVOCATES FOR CHILDREN
OF NEW YORK STATE

911 Central Avenue, #117
Albany, NY 12206

518.426.5354 • 877.80.VOICE

What is CASANYS?

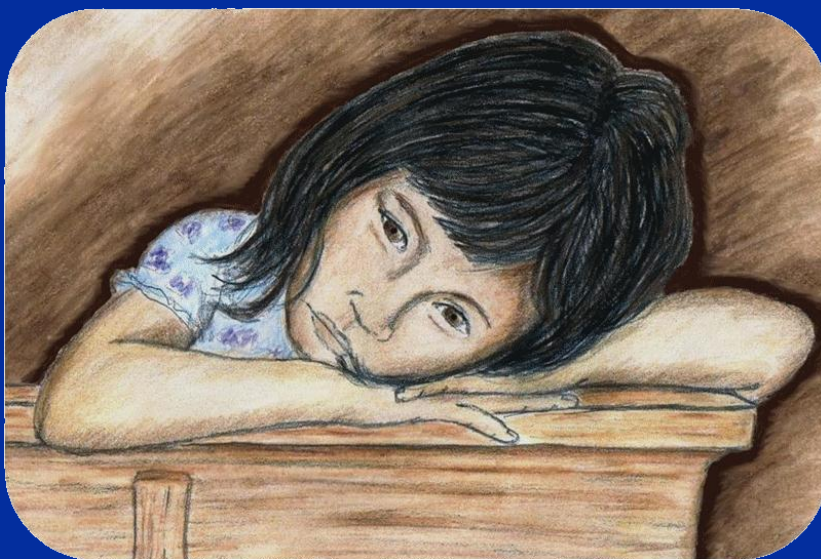

CASA: Advocates for Children of New York State is a state-wide organization that works to provide volunteer advocates for children who have been abused and neglected.

Our goal is to help children find homes that are safe and permanent.

2010 Statistics:

- Local CASA Programs served an estimated 3,546 children.
- CASA volunteers numbered 905.
- Each CASA volunteer contributed, on average, approximately 105 hours of time.
- The total number of hours contributed by CASA volunteers is 97,251.
- Total # of Cases: 1,935
- Total # of Cases closed: 1,228

More advocates are needed!!

Waiting . . . for someone to hear me.

WE NEED YOU TO:

VOLUNTEER • DONATE • CALL

CASA: Advocates for Children of New York State

911 Central Avenue, #117 • Albany, NY 12206

Phone: 518.426.5354 • Fax: 518.426.5348

Email: page@casanys.org • Web: www.casanys.org